Mission

Build intelligent software that makes expertise accessible to everyone.

What AccelaStudy Does

AccelaStudy AI is an adaptive learning platform that maintains a real-time, multidimensional model of every learner's knowledge — updated in under 2 milliseconds after every interaction — and uses it to eliminate wasted study time, predict exam readiness, and diagnose the root cause of every mistake.

Platforms

Web (accelastudy.ai) — General Availability Monday, May 11, 2026. Native iOS, iPadOS, macOS, Windows, and Linux applications — Multi-Platform Launch Monday, June 1, 2026, with real-time cross-device knowledge synchronization.

What Makes It Different

1. Real-time adaptive intelligence — not percent-mastery scores, but real-time knowledge models updated per-answer

2. Root-cause gap detection — traces wrong answers to the missing prerequisite, not just the topic
3. Pass probability prediction — probabilistic simulation with confidence bands before you risk the exam voucher
4. Automated content synthesis — the patented Origin pipeline launches new exams in hours, not months, at a fraction of human-authoring cost per domain
5. Cross-domain knowledge transfer — engine credits you for what you already know across related exams
6. Patent-protected — 29 filings, 637 claims covering adaptive learning algorithms, knowledge synthesis, assessment generation, and federated learning
